

Deccan Herald 02.11.2009

Non-recyclable plastic may be banned

New Delhi, Oct 1, PTI:

The Centre has proposed a ban on non-recyclable laminated multi-layered plastics and metallic

The Environment Ministry has invited comments from the stakeholders on the draft rules for the Plastics

The draft rules also stipulate that only those pouches or multi-layered packaging from biodegradable pla
The views from the public and the industry would be considered by the end of December and if accepted

“The proposals follow suggestions of the Chopra Committee formed at the direction of the Delhi High Co

Seeking a ban on such pouches, the panel had pointed out that “multi-layered and metallic pouches use

The three-member panel headed by retired Delhi High Court judge R C Chopra also suggested a ban on Following the Delhi High Court order based on the panel recommendations, the state government had is

So far 40 shopkeepers have been prosecuted and a trader slapped with a fine of Rs 15,000 for flouting t