

The Hindu 12.04.2017

Make civic body paperless office soon, Mayor calls upon staff

Mayor P. Rajani Seshasai has called upon the staff of her office to ensure that paperless transactions take place in the corporation within a few months. She said that everyone should respond to the call given by Chief Minister N. Chandrababu Naidu on giving top priority to technology.

Speaking at a one-day workshop for engineers and staff of the municipal corporation on e-office system and digital economy here on Tuesday, she suggested that the staff of the corporation should improve their work in order to get the maximum results in a short span of time by making use of technology.

The Urban Development Research Institute, Hyderabad under the aegis of the Municipal Corporation of Rajamahendravaram organised the programme.

Municipal Commissioner V. Vijayarama Raju said that several changes had been made in the corporation as far as administration was concerned and added that a service centre would be set up in a week's time. He maintained that the e-service centre would be linked to all the departments.