

Source : The Hindu

Date : 14.06.2009

Workshop to sensitise civil contractors

NEW DELHI: The Health Department of the Municipal Corporation of Delhi organised a workshop at Commonwealth Games Village here on Saturday for sensitising civil contractors of Shahdara (South and North zones) on prevention and control of mosquito-borne diseases. Sixty contractors and representatives of construction firms attended. Chairing the workshop, Delhi Mayor Kanwar Sain said he would ensure preventive action to control dengue and malaria.