

Source: Deccan Herald Date : 09.07.2009

New technology to handle solid waste in Kolar

K Narasimhamurthy,DH News Service,Kolar:

Kolar City Municipal Council has planned to adopt new technology to manage the City's solid waste.

Talking to the Deccan Herald,V Mohan Kumar, CMC Environmental Executive Engineer, who had recently

In Karwar Dolphy method is followed, which involves the old model of solid waste purification plant. In the

Employing new technology in garbage treatment will provide more benefits such as increased income, p

By adopting such methods, we can handle solid waste and also generate income at the same time, Moh

We can produce power by passing purified wastes through gas chamber and save power. Mohan said, ‘

25 acres of land

Proposal seeking 25 acres of land for the construction of waste treatment plant has been submitted six m

The office of the Deputy Commissioner should consider this matter seriously and should take appropriate