

The Hindu 02.07.2013

Committee formed to assess property tax

Udhagamandalam Municipal Commissioner has formed a three-member committee to take stock of buildings that are yet to be assessed for tax and those that had gone for expansion.

Commissioner of Municipal Administration – Chennai, and Regional Director of Municipal Administration – Tirupur, have been asked to carry out an audit to identify buildings that were not paying exact property tax, according to a release here. Buildings being brought under the audit are: those that are yet to be assessed for property tax, those that are levied a lesser tax compared to the area constructed, buildings that have additional structures, and those that had been changed to commercial purposes. Owners of such buildings should approach the civic body for tax assessment.