

The Hindu 27.11.2014

Corporation removes hoardings

The Coimbatore Corporation for the second day on Wednesday removed 155 illegal hoardings, sign boards and advertisements in the city. On Tuesday it had removed over 120 hoardings from across the city. According to Commissioner K. Vijayakarhikeyan, the civic body workers also removed 512 advertisement boards that were nailed into trees.

On Wednesday, the officials disconnected 31 illegal water connections. On Tuesday, the Corporation had severed 15 illegal water connections.