

The Hindu 11.07.2016

Record number of birth, death certificates issued

The Corporation despatched a record number of 430 birth and death certificates on a single day on Saturday. The Corporation has urged the people to submit applications for the certificates directly at the corporation office, without approaching middlemen. The corporation will send the birth certificates to the applicants by post within three days. The applicants have been directed to attach a self-addressed envelope along with the applications. The sources said that many applications are received daily for the correction of names in certificates. This takes some time, the sources added.