

The Hindu 21.11.2016

‘Pay tax with old currency’

As part of a special campaign to improve tax collection, the Chennai Corporation will continue to accept old currency notes of Rs. 500 and Rs. 1,000 from property tax assesseees at 446 counters across the city. The counters that have been set up in all the 200 ward offices, 15 zonal offices, Ripon Buildings and common service centres will operate till Thursday. Residents can call the civic body helpline 1913 for clarifications.