

Source : The Hindu Date : 24.06.2009

Union Urban Development Secretary calls on Stalin

Special Correspondent

CHENNAI: Union Urban Development Secretary M. Ramachandran met Deputy Chief Minister M.K. Stalin at Secretariat here on Tuesday and discussed issues relating to allotment of funds for the State under the Jawaharlal Nehru Urban Renewal Mission, mobilisation of resources for new projects under the mission, purchase of new buses to improve transport facilities and the progress of the Chennai Metro Rail project.

Mayor M. Subramanian; T.V. Somanathan, Secretary to Chief Minister (Monitoring); K. Deenabandu, Secretary to Deputy Chief Minister; Niranjan Mardi, Secretary, Municipal Administration and Water Supplies Department; Transport Secretary Atulya Mishra and Corporation Commissioner (in-charge) Ashish Chatterjee were among those present.